Department of English, Birjhora Kanya Mahavidyalaya has organised a one day workshop on "Vocational Training in Beautician Course For Self-Employment" in the college premises on February 3rd, 2022. The meeting was chaired by the Principal Dr. Gagan Sarma. The HOD cum host of the training session has introduced and welcomed the resource person Miss Tribeni Singha, a certified beauty therapist, Make-up artist of Bongaigaon, Assam among the students.

During the training session, she has tried her best to exchange her experiences to the students about how this course can help to make a woman to become self-dependent in current situation where youth are facing so much competition to get into a service and earn for the livelihood of day to day life. Students find it interesting and credible to look after it . overall the session was a fruitful one and it was concluded by vote of thanks to the resource person, chaired person and other faculty members and all the students.
